Purpose, Scope & Intended Audience

Purpose : The division of Legal Metrology, Department of Agriculture in aspect of digitization of work process of the department desires an introduction of IT. Weights and Measure Management Information System (WeMMIS) will have the features to further enhance security and confidentiality fully automated payments and Inspections mechanism that which shall be implemented in phases, online authentication/validations, etc. The online platform is envisaged to provide a host of features that will bring process efficiencies and facilitate ease of use.

National Informatics Centre (NIC) has developed the Weights and Measure Management Information System (WeMMIS) application. e-Maaptaul Application is one of the integrated service project and a first of its kind in G2B initiative implemented in Legal Metrology Department, GoB.

Scope : It helps in end-to-end solutions aimed at improving G2B services. Increased transparency, time saving and increased efficiency are the benefits, both consumers and staff of department can expect from Weights and Measure Management Information System (WeMMIS).

Weights and Measure Management Information System (WeMMIS) or an official website for the division that must contain all the relevant information of the department that includes basic functionalities, notifications/circular, Report, Consumer, Corner, Grievance Redressel, important links, workflow-based architecture and FAQ's etc.

Weights and Measure Management Information System (WeMMIS) based application that can be accessed via internet for the digitization of workflow of the department that introduces software-based automation of the process of obtaining certification, registration and certification of the Trader/Dealer/Packer/Repairer etc.

Intended Audience : The application is intended to provide an end to end solution improving government to business services delivery by Legal Metrology division, Agriculture Department, Government of Bihar. The portal also aims to provide an increased transparency, time saving and increased efficiency of the system, as few of the benefits to the consumers and the staff of division of legal metrology.

The web based application software is designed to offer full automated functionalities of division of legal metrology, Government of Bihar needs in management of the department. The application software covers the automation of the following:-

(1) Verification and Stamping of Weights and Measures Instruments.
(2) Issuance of Licence of manufacturer of weights and Measures Instruments.
(3) Issuance of Licence of Dealer of Weights and Measures Instruments.
(4) Issuance of Licence of Repairer of Weights and Measures Instruments.
(5) Renewal Of Licence Of Manufacturer of Weights and Measures Instruments.
(6) Renewal Of Licence Of Dealer of Weights and Measures Instruments.
(7) Renewal Of Licence Of Repairer of Weights and Measures Instruments.